The Argument

By William Boyd

Starring Felicity Kendal

It was supposed to be a fun night out at the cinema for Meredith and Pip. But Meredith hated the film and Pip didn't. Now it's turned into an argument – the perfect opportunity to share their differences.

With the marriage at breaking point, they turn to their respective friends, Jane and Tony. But maybe Jane likes Pip a little too much and maybe Tony doesn't like Meredith enough.

After thirty-six years of marriage, surely Meredith's parents Chloe and Frank, can advise.

But maybe they don't like any of them or each other. Will the argument tear them apart?

Best - selling novelist and screen writer William Boyd's darkly funny play is a blistering look at the complexities of human relationships and how arguments can provide a catalyst for brutal honesty.

The Life I Lead

A new comedy by James Kettle

Starring Miles Jupp

Best remembered for his performance as Mr Banks in Disney's classic film Mary Poppins, David Tomlinson was renowned for playing the classic English gent, forthright, proper, and a loveable fool.

His meeting with Walt Disney came to encapsulate his incredible life full of adventure and heartbreak.

The man who portrayed one of cinema's most famous patriarchs was defined by his relationship with his own father – a remote eccentric, who was hiding an extraordinary tragicomic secret.

The Life I Lead sees one of the UK's leading stand-up comedians, Miles Jupp, bring David Tomlinson's remarkable story to life. It is a richly comic and moving tale of fathers and sons across different generations, filling in the blanks behind a very well-known face.
