THEATRE ROYAL, BATH

January 2019 to May 2019

Welcome to the new theatre season. We would like to welcome all employees of the Bath and North East Somerset Council, their families and friends to the club which arranges front stall seats usually on the first night of each performance, which in most cases now entitles us to a 20% group discount.

In addition, there is the usual discount for each member (your membership number must be quoted and discount can only apply to member's own ticket. Without this we regret your booking will be returned).

As usual we have 50 seats reserved for each performance and these will be allocated on a 'first come first served' basis.

Please forward cheques together with booking form to

PERSONAL/THEATRE
John Pagett
C/O Post Room
Lewis House
Manvers Street
Bath
BA1 1JG

Please supply separate cheques for each performance made payable to
B&NES Social Club

CLOSING DATE FOR ALL SHOWS – THURSDAY 20th DECEMBER 2018

Please note that after this date no bookings can be accepted as all unsold tickets are returned to the Theatre for general sale.

Happy Theatre going

A Song at Twilight

By Noel Coward

Starring Simon Callow and Jane Asher

World famous author Sir Hugo Latymer is growing old, rude and haughty. In the private suite of a lakeside hotel, he is attended to by his long-suffering wife and former secretary, Hilde, and Felix, a handsome young waiter. Here he nervously awaits the arrival of an old flame, actress Carlotta Gray, with whom he enjoyed a two-year love affair more than forty years ago. What can she possibly want now? Revenge for his uncharitable characterisation of her in his recent autobiography? Money, to compensate for a second-rate acting career in the States? But it turns out Carlotta is writing her own memoir, and wants something much more significant than cash....

Rough Crossing

By Tom Stoppard

Songs by Andre Previn

Lyrics by Tom Stoppard

Two famous but desperate playwrights trying to rehearse their latest show are stuck on an ocean liner heading to New York, feverishly trying to rehearse their latest show before reaching land, and opening night. But they are constantly distracted by their delicate composer's attempts to end it all, having overheard his lover confess her feelings to the leading man. Add an absurdly unorthodox waiter, a mis-timed lifeboat drill and vanishing glass of brandy and soon the sharp Atlantic winds turn to world-class gales of laughter as these colourful characters become tangled up in a typically Stoppardian string of absurd events.

Stones In His Pockets

By Marie Jones

A small village in rural Ireland is turned upside down when a major Hollywood film studio descends to make a historical blockbuster on location. The story is told through the eyes of Charlie Conlon and Jake Quinn, employed as extras along with numerous other locals. As cultures clash, it becomes clear that Tinseltown's romanticized dream of Ireland is a long, long way from reality. Through their eyes a multitude of extraordinary characters come to life, ranging from the spoilt American starlet to the English director and the village old timer.

Glengarry Glen Ross

By David Mamet

Starring Mark Benton and Nigel Harman

Lies. Greed. Corruption. It's business as usual.

An office of cut-throat Chicago salesmen are pitched in a high stakes competition against each other. Four increasingly desperate employees will do anything, legal or otherwise, to sell the most real estate. As time and luck start to run out, the mantra is simple: close the deal and you've won a Cadillac; blow the lead and your fired.

Equus

By Peter Shaffer

Inspired by a true story, this dazzling thriller plumbs the darkest recess of the human psyche as it explores the complex relationships between passion, sex, religion and sanity.

When teenager Alan Strang's pathological fascination with horses leads him to commit a devastating act of violence, psychiatrist Dr. Martin Dysart reluctantly accepts the task of uncovering what actually happened the night the crime was committed. But as Dysart delves further and further into Alan's twisted world, he is forced to question his own sanity and motivations.

Home, I'm Darling

By Laura Wade

Starring Katherine Parkinson

How happily married are the happily married?

Following a sold-out run at The National Theatre and direct from a West End transfer, Katherine Parkinson reprises her acclaimed role as Judy in Laura Wade's new comedy about one woman's quest to be the perfect 1950's housewife. Every couple needs a little fantasy to keep their marriage sparkling. But behind the gingham curtains, things start to unravel, and being a domestic goddess is not as easy as it seems.

Fiddler on the Roof

Performed by The Bath Operatic and Dramatic Society

Fiddler on the Roof is one of the best loved of all stage musicals. It is set in a poor Russian village in 1905, where Tevye, the local milkman, has always stuck to the traditional way of life. Now his headstrong daughters have decided that they want to marry for love rather than accept the choice of the Matchmaker. Will tradition win in the face of a changing world? Busting with memorable and instantly recognisable songs including If I Were A Rich Man, Matchmaker, Sunrise, Sunset, To Life and many more, this promises to be a song and dance extravaganza for all the family to enjoy.

Captain Corelli's Mandolin

Based on the novel by Louis de Bernieres

Set on the Greek island of Cephalonia, this is an unforgettable love story which evolves against the turbulent backdrop of World War II. Dr. Iannis loves the island of Cephalonia and his beautiful, strong-willed daughter Pelagia. Carlo, an Italian soldier, learned what it means to love whilst fighting in Albania. Pelagia loves her father and the fisherman Mandras. The young Italian Captain Corelli loves only his music. And then in 1941, the idyllic Greek island awakes to find itself in the jaws of war, under Italian and German occupation. As history unfolds, everything they knew and understood changes.
